Jelaluddin Rumi (1207-1273) was a master of ecstatic poetry. His illuminating words have inspired countless people throughout history, and today, thanks to the magical translations of Coleman Barks, Rumi's verses are more popular than ever. This exquisite wall calendar pairs Barks's translations with contemporary Persian art by Farah Ossouli.

Art gives a teasing taste of surrender without the full experience. Beautiful poetry can keep one on the verge of the oceanic annihilation in God. Rumi says, we've been walking in the surf holding our robes up, when we should be diving naked under, and deeper under." That is part of Coleman Barks' contextual prose for the chapter titled : Art as Flirtation with Surrender ... indeed in this ...
